

Department of Family Medicine Pilot Funding Recipients 2022-23

Project Name	Investigators	Amount Funded
Community Physicians/ Faculty Researchers
Understanding musicians' perspectives about their unique primary healthcare needs, and the health care services available to them in Canada	Kathryn Cottrell (PI)	$5,000.00
GPS Health Navigators: Implementing and Evaluating an Outpatient Palliative Systems-Navigation Service for Refugees	Humaira Saeed (PI), Priya Gupta, Christopher Klinger, Jehanara Chagani, Christiana Owoo	$4,947.00
AFP Physicians
The Role of Personal Support Workers in Long-Term Care in Hamilton	Henry Y. H. Siu, Jessica F Burford (Co-PIs), Bahar Karimi, Kanwal Shankardass	$5,000.00
Patient-driven change in custody: a participatory action research project to bring patient perspectives into quality improvement of primary care healthcare services in Ontario's provincial correctional facilities	Fiona Kouyoumdjian (PI), Kate McLeod	$4,913.00
Education
Palliative Care Awareness and Training in Rural Family Medicine Postgraduate Learners at McMaster University	Nicholas Tompkins (PI), Erin Gallagher, Christopher Klinger	$5,000.00
Division of Palliative Care
A qualitative analysis on cancer survivors' experiences with distress and distress management after attending an interdisciplinary survivorship clinic	Martin Chasen (PI), Patricia Strachan, Donny Li, Mariam Aga	$4,999.00

Graduate Student
Patient perspectives on pharmacogenomic (PGx) testing for depression in primary care	Meredith Vanstone, Alexandra Cernat (Co-PIs), Amanda Ramdyal, Julia Abelson, Zena Samaan	$5,000.00